DISABLED WAR VETS ENJOY TV, GIFT OF DESERT SUN CIRCULATION DRIVE

Ward E-6 at the Corona Veterans Hospital this week is enjoying watching television on a new Sentinel, with 21-inch screen, bought for them by Desert Sun subscribers.

The circulation campaign, which started December 1, added over 1500 new subscribers in the Palm Springs area to the Desert Sun mailing list, and made possible the presentation of the television set to the hospital.

In receiving the set from Frank Dwyer, the Desert Sun circulation manager, Executive Officer, Capt. R. S. Simpson, USN, said that television is the most popular form of entertainment among the patients.

Many Villagers, already subscribers to the Desert Sun, contributed gift subscriptions to the hospital in such generous quantities that it will be possible to spread them out to cover other veterans' hospitals in the southland. Several cash donations were returned because they were not needed.

With the combination of the subscription lists of the Desert Sun and the Palm Springs News, together with the new subscriptions obtained through the recent campaign, the Desert Sun now enjoys the greatest mass circulation coverage of any media ever obtained in the desert area.

So here, it is, without a fuss,
To all of you, Merry Christmas.
To purists, though, just let that pass,
To them I wish Merry Christmas.

"My own and Fred Weigel's."
TURNED DOWN two exciting offers this week . . . One was to play Santa Claus, don a red suit, whiskers, etc., and carry a sack. Think the person submitting the proposal figured on saving the necessity of equipping Santa with a pillow . . . For roundness, not sleeping purposes. . . But I refused . . . I look like hek in red . . . And I don't like to be left holding the bag . . . The other offer was to play the New Year, 1953 . . . I demurred . . . Trouble finding equipment for that, too . . . They suggested a bed sheet but that isn't square and won't fold right . . . Besides New Year should suggest 1953 not 1952.

IT PROBABLY WAS intended as a joke but Chief of Police A. G. Kettmann can't see it . . . Seems that at 1:15 a. m. Sunday someone called a local hotel . . . The caller said he was the chief of police and informed the hotel man that "your front apartment is on fire." . . . The manager called police and was inform them of Palm Springs events. Pictured in Ward E6 where the set will be used, are: (l. to r.) Norbert P. Kreilein, Jasper, Indiana; Francis J. Messer, Pittsfield, Massachusetts; Dwyer; Robert Tuccille, Jersey City, New Jersey; Arthur M. Duer, Mayfield, Kentucky; Lloyd Shomaker, Illinois, New York; Richard B. Mishawaka, Indiana; Captain R. S. Simpson, executive officer, and David F. Wilson, Blackwell, Oklahoma. In foreground, Jarner Irwin, Vetersburg, Indiana.

Large Desert Delegation to Back Zoning

Spirited Hearing Anticipated Before Supervisors Monday

Palm Springs and the desert resort area to the east, backed by other Coachella Valley areas is planning to send a large delegation to Riverside Monday afternoon when supervisors act on a recommendation 1600 acres of desert land north and northwest where Samuel Guberson said he was going to build a cement mill.

The hearing is scheduled for December 29, next Monday, at 2 p. m.

BECAUSE THE CEMENT MILL interests are planning to appear in force to argue against re-control of the land, civic leaders here who have been seeking restoration of controls plan to attend and speak for controls.

County planners have held two meetings on the proposal to zone the area and at their final discussion, voted 5 to 2 to recommend controls.

Guberson won decontrol in 1949 after a spirited battle.

SINCE THEN, however, he has taken no action toward erecting the cement mill.

Supervisors last week set the date for the hearing for next Monday by a vote of 4 to 1. Supervisor William Jones opposed the plan, arguing that the hearing be held after the first of the year when one change will be made on the board, Jones was active in removing controls in 1949.

AT THEIR LAST meeting, Coachella Valley Advisory Planning committee adopted a resolution urging supervisors to re-establish controls at the Guberson site.

They also planned to send delegations to Monday's hearing to speak for controls.

The land is now in M-2 which allows any kind of heavy industry. It is proposed to shift to an M-3 zone which still permits industry but provides strict regulation and a permit from the county.

CVAPC members feared that prevailing winds would scatter cement dust over the entire valley area.

SANTA'S HELPERS—More than 400 toys and gifts for youngsters were distributed Tuesday evening by members of the Welfare and Friendly Aid Association, in their annual Christmas distribution of presents to less fortunate boys and girls. The toys were donated by Villagers, and then wrapped with the traditional trimmings before delivery. Pictured wrapping gifts are (left to right) kneeling, Mrs. Jack Freeman and Mrs. Clarence Simpson. Standing, Mrs. B. H. Pollak, Mrs. Ted Charlston and Mrs. Richard J. White.

PLAN TO RETURN CIRCUS TO "THE GOOD OLD DAYS"

Plans for the 1953 Desert Circus were discussed at the first meeting of the board of directors after Mr. Hicks and George Strebe were selected to chairmen the event, held Monday afternoon at the Desert Inn Fiesta House.

No definite decisions were made by the representatives of civic organizations, but they adopted a resolution accepting the recommendation of Chairman Hicks that the "Desert Circus be returned to the 'old days,' when everyone had a good time."

Co-chairman Strebe urged that all merchants, restaurants and bars actively participate by decorating their business establishment in the Circus theme. Another feature of the "old-time Desert Circuses" which was asked to be revived was the wearing of western attire by all local people and as many visitors as possible.

Next meeting of the group will be at 4 p. m., Monday, January 5, at the Fiesta House, when committees will be named by Hicks and Strebe.

Schools Close for Holidays

Schools of the Palm Springs Unified district closed their doors Tuesday noon for Christmas vacation and will reopen at the regular time Monday morning, January 5.

The central office in Frances S. Stevens school building will be closed Friday and Saturday, December 26 and 27 and Friday and Saturday, January 2 and 3.

Anti Smog Law Meets Approval

Few violations of the city's ordinance on burning have been reported since its enforcement starting Saturday. Fire Chief William Leonosio reported today. Good cooperation has been received from a majority of villagers, he said, with the few violators receiving citations.

First offenders to the ordinance will be issued citations, Chief Leonosio warned, with a second offense bringing about a court appearance for the guilty party.

The resolution adopted by council prohibits the issuance of any permit to burn rubbish and garden cuttings, and revokes all outstanding permits. This covers all the area within the city limits.

The city dump is also affected by the ruling and the waste disposal department has been authorized to develop other methods of disposing of rubbish and waste.

Action was taken by council on request of Chief Leonosio and Fire Marshal Warren Heath to prevent any chance of man-made smog in the desert area.

Liquor in Wrong Place Brings Arrest

John Kenneth Terry, 24, War Housing Project, and Mrs. Nadyne Symington, 46, 233 East Amado road, were arrested Saturday by Capt. Orest Johnson and Officer Eugene Holmes on a charge of possession of liquor on the Indian reservation.

My dear Mr. Jaynes:

The fine 21 inch Sentinel television set with table, which your circulation manager Mr. Frank Dwyer delivered to this hospital, was a most welcome addition to our recreational facilities.

The set was installed immediately on one of the active wards. This ward has a large number of bed patients whose confinement will be made a great deal more tolerable by the enjoyment they will derive from your gift.

Television is without question the best means available for entertaining the patient and diverting his mind from his problems, and the enthusiastic manner with which the patients welcomed this set demonstrated how much it meant to them.

Thank you and all who so generously participated in making this splendid gift possible.

Sincerely yours,

Letter of Appreciation from Norco Hospital

The Other Side of the City Hall

by CITY MANAGER RUSSELL RINK

Secret meetings of governmental bodies are a popular subject with the newspaper profession. Last week Publisher Jaynes expounded at length on the evils of these smoke-filled, back-room sessions. When I arrived in Palm Springs three years ago, the publisher of Limelight was lambasting the Council for secret meetings or star chamber sessions as they are called when the first term gets hackneyed.

All of the criticism follows the same pattern and the writers habitually overlook several important, basic facts. First, no legislative or governing body can appropriate any money, pass any law, grant any variance to any law, or enter any contract except by action at a public meeting.

WHY DOES our City Council and those of so many other cities hold "secret meetings"? I have placed quotations around the term because it's a misnomer. No one is sworn to secrecy. Any councilman and any member of the paid staff is free to tell anyone what was discussed at the conference which is the correct term. Now to get back to the question as to why the conferences are held.

Municipal government is a complex subject and includes engineering, finance, planning and law to name a few of the sciences and professions involved. Most councilmen feel they can make a more intelligent decision on a subject if they can sit down with the city manager, city attorney, or planning director, spread out a map or a contract and ask a great many questions. Oftentimes they will insist on inspecting a project on the ground before making a decision.

The critics of secret meetings always complain they have no way of knowing how this or that councilman arrived at his decision. The decision he makes is the important thing—that's what is felt by the people, not the how or why. Even so, a news reporter is still privileged at the end of an official meeting to ask a councilman why he voted as he did.

NOW SUPPOSE the Legislature does pass a law prohibiting so-called secret meetings. Will conscientious councilmen pass judgment on important matters without asking advice of their constituents, the city manager, the city attorney, or perhaps the views of a fellow councilman? According to the critics each one of these conversations is secret unless the press is there. Such a law would impinge on the right of free people to assemble.

Intelligent men and women have been meeting in groups in so-called secret meetings for the betterment of our government for a long time and the press isn't going to change the habit. The Constitution of the United States was prepared behind closed doors under the tightest secrecy. It was then adopted by the States in open meeting. Once in a while we can learn valuable lessons from history.

Winter Tourist Season Well Ahead of Last Year, Report

Southern California's Winter tourist season is continuing to show gains over last year, the All-Year Club reported today. Out-of-state vacationers coming here in November spent over $37,000,000. This was $3,000,000 ahead of the same month a year ago.

The dollar gains were obtained only because the Southland's tourist industry was able to show a very marked increase in the number of out-of-state visitors making the trip here, according to George J. O'Brien, president of the community organization handling the national tourist advertising.

A TOTAL OF 276,000 tourists came here from other states during the month. This was nearly 23 per cent more than came the same month a year ago, whereas their expenditures were only 9 per cent more than a year ago.

The reason is simply that our visitors apparently have less money available than they wish to spend on the trip this year," O'Brien explained. "They spend just about as much per day of their visit, but apparently they have been cutting down the length of their visits."

"It is very fortunate that we

Salvation Army Campaign Begun

Letters went out last week to villagers soliciting aid for the Salvation Army.

Since the Salvation Army does not solicit aid here with the familiar tambourine and kettle and does not receive aid from the Community Chest, Envoys O. Tracy, field representative, urged villagers to be generous and speedy with their response.

Fred Ingram is treasurer for the drive here and Earl Coffman chairman of the sponsoring committee.

From Korea

Cpl. Kadera, USMC,
Back in States

Cpl. Robert G. Kadera, son of Mrs. Ann E. Kadera, 1127 North Calle Marcus, arrived in San Francisco Sunday from Korea aboard the USS Weigel. Cpl. Kadera is one of 270 California First Marine Division veterans who arrived in a 2400-man rotation draft from the Orient.

These men of the Fleet Marine Force will be home on a thirty-day leave by Christmas. Before these Korean veterans go on leave they will be paid, medically examined, be issued new clothes and receive orders to a duty station in the United States.

Cpl. Kadera served over ten months with the 1st Engineer Battalion of the First Marine Division in Korea.

Lions to Skip Two Meetings

There will be no meeting of Palm Springs Lions club this week or next, President Earl Hough reminded members Tuesday.

The club meets Thursday noons and because of the Christmas and New Year's day falling on Thursday this year, the meetings were cancelled.

The club will meet next on January 8.

Lost Watch Found, Returned to Owner

Elma Mae Richardson, 33291 Shifting Sands Trail, reported to police Saturday the finding of a watch lost December 15 by Mrs. Richard Brooks of Los Angeles. The watch was returned to Mrs. Brooks by mail.

Plan Holiday Events at Tennis Club

A number of parties are being planned for Christmas weekend at the Tennis Club. With the large all-white Christmas tree for a background, parties are assembling in the Bougainville room during the holidays.

Mr. and Mrs. Walter Yeaton will entertain their houseguests, Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Brashares and young Jimmy, of Pasadena, on Saturday night. Mrs. Yeaton, who lives on Via Lola, showed the Tennis Club to a group of Los Angeles friends including Mmes. Edwin J. Ohlsen, Robert Walsh, Orpha Klinker and Lawrence Dangerfield, one recent mid-day.

Lunching and viewing the club for the first time was New Yorker, Miss Marguerite Allen, who has been on a tour of Hawaii and California resorts this month.

The tennis courts have been active with Bill Crosby, former tennis pro at the California Tennis Club in Berkeley playing with Jeff Bill, Jack Gorham and Eddie Meyerson one recent afternoon. Mrs. Daniel Prenz of London, England, has brought her son to play in the Christmas Junior Tournament to be played from Friday to Sunday of this week. The English visitors are stopping in the Tennis Club bungalows.

Chase Family Holiday Plans

With the arrival of her husband and son from back East, Mrs. C. Thornton Chase Jr. of 2475 Las Lomas, thinks Christmas is really here. Mr. Chase is head master of the Eaglebrook School at Deerfield, Massachusetts, and their son Allan is a student at Wesleyan University in Connecticut. Allan drove home across country in 62 hours with no mishaps.

Joining the Chase family for Christmas are her two brothers O. Davis Keep and C. T. S. Keep of Los Angeles and San Francisco. They are publisher and assistant publisher, respectively, of Fortnight magazine.

Halls Host Family Party

Mr. and Mrs. William Hall, of 974 San Lucas, are hosting a family dinner at their home today. Christmas guests at the Hall home are Mr. and Mrs. C. B. Duke of Crestline, and Mr. and Mrs. John J. Duke and Mr. and Mrs. Harold Bailey of Colton.

Children's Party at Shadow Mountain Club

Pre-Christmas festivities at Shadow Mountain Club included a children's party on Saturday, arranged for them by Mrs. Irene Mattheas, social director.

"Santa" arrived at the club on horseback to visit with the youngsters and find out what they want for Christmas. Games were enjoyed, with prizes for the winners. Refreshments of gingerbread cookies and other holiday goodies were served.

Dudley Steele, member of the club, entertained the children with a special treat—by running the miniature railroad for them. He has installed a train set-up (which he built himself) on the club grounds in a special little "railroad house."

Among those attending the party were: Judy Nutten, David and Peter Blair, Cathy Malone, Susan and Arlita Hupp, Ricky Birge, Carol Ann Manzo, Terrill Petro, Missy Alexander, Elizabeth Fisher, Pamela Peck, Kathryn Kent, Pamela Tackett and guests Eric and Ruth Marie Sampson, Briggs Bosworth, Mary Ione Schaper, David Hatch, Ricky Smithers, Janet Engomar, Geop Berkeley, Craig and Craig Strahl, Johnny Grant, Jane Ann Ramsey, Nancy and John Reynolds, Lenore and Annette Cowan, Smokey and Peter Derbes, Craig and Jonathan Bowlin and Craig Williams.

Gottbehuets Host Seattle Friend

A Christmas guest in the home of the Claude Gottbehuets on San Jacinto Way, is Louis Max Gamon of Seattle, Gamon, who is an old schoolmate of Mr. Gottbehuets, is here for a month's rest on the desert. He is a certified public accountant.

CHRISTMAS CAROLERS—A chorus of 60 voices, fourth, fifth and sixth grade pupils, under the direction of Miss Angela Brennan, added spirit to the Village's Christmas. They appeared in the Christmas parade on Tuesday, and on the program for Kiwanis Club, and at the Legion Hall Tuesday evening. They were a highlight of the Christmas program at Katherine Finchy school last Thursday evening.

Newswomen Here for Christmas

Margaret Ralston and Jenness Keene, editor and assistant editor of the McGraw-Hill Pacific Coast News Bureau of San Francisco, will be holiday houseguests at the Clinton Bauer home on San Lorenzo road.

Dr. and Mrs. William Paine and son Tommy will join the group on Christmas Day. Mrs. Paine and Mrs. Keene are sisters of Mrs. Bauer.

Rotarians to Host VISA for Holidays

Two foreign students, a girl from Korea and a boy from Germany, will be guests in Palm Springs homes during Christmas week as a part of the Rotary Club program for VISA, the Visiting International Students association. It was originally planned to entertain additional students but illness and other arrangements interfered.

Dr. Arthur Hoff, of the VISA committee, reported today.

Herbert Kubas, a German student majoring in sociology at the University of Redlands, will be a guest in the home of Mr. and Mrs. Hilton McCabe, on December 27 and 28.

Miss Kay Kayko, of Korea, who is an education major at Redlands, will spend the weekend in the home of Mr. and Mrs. Joe Gamble.

The Palm Springs Rotary Club sponsors a Chinese student, Paul Yen, who is enrolled at Redlands. Due to illness, he will arrive later for a visit with the Jacques Crommelins.

The students are being invited into American homes to give them a chance to get better acquainted with the American way of life.

Foreign students, about 65 of them, were entertained by Palm Springs Rotary Club members three times last year, with the VISA conference held here in December. There were about 300 people at the conference.

Desert Inn Prepares Gala Greeting for the New Year

One of the most brilliant dinner dances the desert resort area has seen in many a day will be the New Year's Eve Ball to be held at the Desert Inn on Wednesday evening, December 31.

An elaborate dinner will be served from seven to nine, and a famous dance band will play as a distinguished crowd of merry-makers dance away 1952 and see to it that 1953 is ushered in and gaily established.

There will be thousands of balloons which will fall at the stroke of twelve; tables will be laden with favors, hats, serpentine, and noisemakers, and around ten o'clock guests will be treated to a colorful floorshow of special entertainment. There will also be strolling troubadours to serenade with music and song, throughout the evening.

Reservations have been pouring in for this soiree which promises to be one of the most popular affairs of the entire season.

Collegians' Mistletoe Ball at Deep Well

The Mistletoe Ball, which is being arranged for collegians home for the holidays and the young married set, will be held at Deep Well on Saturday evening, instead of December 29 as previously announced. The party will start at 9 p. m.

Santos is arranging a late supper and there will be dancing to the music of the Archie Long orchestra.

For details or reservations, call Janet Javnes, 5288, or Dick Clarke, 5651.

Alchians Prepare for Christmas

Santa Claus is bringing the tree and there will be a goose dinner as Mr. and Mrs. Vahan Alchian observe a traditional Christmas at their home at 2223 Araby drive.

There is to share in the festivities are Alchian's parents, Mr. and Mrs. John L. Green of San Bernardino, and Mr. and Mrs. Ed Uhl of Vacaville.

TRAVELING FOR HEALTH

Dr. Rautzenberg is again organizing his summer group-travel through Europe around the central idea of restoring health through sight-seeing. New impressions through travel afford abundant opportunities for restoring health and nervous energy. Dr. Rautzenberg, himself a European, is an expert on European travel and on health through non-physical means. As a consulting psychologist, he originated the idea of traveling for health in groups of people all bent on the same health-seeking idea. Remarkable success has been obtained on these guided journeys for health. The next journey starts when the season ends in the desert.

Joan McCauley, James Hargrave, Exchange Vows at St. Paul's Church

In a candlelight ceremony at St. Paul's in the Desert Saturday night, Joan Kathleen McCauley, daughter of Dr. and Mrs. Daniel H. McCauley, exchanged nuptial vows with James Conley Hargrave. Father William E. Blonden officiated at the double ring rite, before an altar banked with white chrysanthemums.

The bride was gown in traditional white, wearing ankle-length gown of lace over satin, and carried a white prayerbook with a shower of green orchids and white stephanotis.

Wynne Hammond was the soloist, singing the wedding songs.

Hilda M. Ward, maid-of-honor, wore a gown of mauve tulle and carried a colonial bouquet fashioned of mauve-toned chrysanthemums.

Richard Vierich was best man.

Christmas comes to the desert . . . just as it does everywhere . . . It's a bright star hanging low in the sky . . . it's chiming playing . . . flowers massed on the altar and candles burning . . . It's carols on the radio . . . and Santa Claus in the stores . . . It's tossing alms into Salvation Army kettles or mailing a check to Boystown . . . It's draping tinsel on a tree . . . and buying extravagant gifts . . . It's turkey roasting in the oven . . . and your family gathered about you . . . It is all of these things . . . and none of these things . . . for Christmas dwells in your heart . . .

In the Village as elsewhere, there was many a late shopper making the rounds of the stores last night . . . Many a Villager is out of town spending Christmas with family circles . . . and many a Village household is the scene of a family gathering . . . but, not so many parties . . . Christmas, warm and friendly and joyous as it is, is a full before the New Year's gaiety sets off the round of partying that will mark the height of the Palm Springs season . . .

Crist Home to be Scene of Re-Union

Christmas means a family re-union for Mr. and Mrs. A. Belden Crist and daughter Linda Sue, who are spending the holidays in Phoenix with Mrs. Crist's mother Mrs. T. A. Ferguson and family. Mrs. Crist's brothers and sisters and their families will be there, too.

Mrs. Ferguson has 14 grandchildren and they will all be in Phoenix with the exception of Sharon Bown, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. R. C. Bown of Portland, Oregon. Business prevented them from making the trip. Mrs. C. V. Simmerman and daughter Pamela Elaine of San Diego, traveled to Phoenix with the Crists. The Crists will spend one day visiting friends before returning home. Mr. Crist is a graduate of Phoenix Union high school and Mrs. Crist of the Globe high school.

Egg-nog Legacy

Using an old family recipe for egg-nog, Trixie Jarrette entertained a group of friends at a Christmas egg-nog party Sunday afternoon from 4 to 6, at her home on Riverside drive . . . Henry West-ly, Polly Isenagie, Elaine Elser, Charlotte Kanaga, Miss Katherine Finchy and Mr. Morris Teitelbaum . . .

Snow on our mountains is artist-bait and the palette-and-brush men have been heading for the Village to set on their easels and try to catch the beauty of the frosted peaks . . . Miriam Williams tells this one on Norman Yerkey, Burbank artist, who got caught in Sunday morning's (pardon the expression) rain as he was trying to paint the sunrise . . . The painting finally emerged a sunset . . . but, who cares . . . they are gorgeous, too . . .

On the sidelines . . . Bill Bardo, who is playing at El Mirador, had a grandfather who was court violinist to the late Emperor Franz Joseph of Austria . . . and a father who became the champion square dance fiddler of New York State . . . so it isn't unusual that Bill Bardo's chosen instrument is . . . you guessed it . . . a violin . . .

Merry Christmas, Everyone . . . Everywhere . . . from the City Hall to the Tennis Club . . . from Smoke Tree to the Racquet Club . . . from the Palm Desert to the Doll House.

Film on Liquor to be Shown at Local Church

"Of Scrap and Steel," the true story of Arthur Hawkins' fight to conquer the habit of drink through the efforts of the Union Rescue Mission, will be shown at 7:30 p. m., Sunday, at the Four-square church, North Indian avenue at Oasis road.

Hawkins was an executive of the U. S. Steel Corporation, until, in his own words:

"Drink became my master to such an extent that in the latter part of September, 1930, I walked out of my office with the intention of going on a 'tear' until my money was gone and after that—I just didn't matter what became of me. I didn't care whether I lived or not. I am praising God that He overruled and led me to the Union Rescue Mission."

After being helped by the Mission, he started on the way back and 10 years ago became identified with the Los Angeles office of the Columbia Steel Company, a subsidiary of the U. S. Steel. The public is invited to see the film.

Church Plans for Watch Night

Watch night service will be held at Community church on New Year's Eve with a potluck supper at 8 o'clock and a motion picture film "The Sinner and the Cross" at 9:15.

The closing hour will be spent in the sanctuary with a special Communion service.

Woman's Club

Good cheer prevailed at the Christmas social meeting of the Cathedral City Woman's Club last week which opened with a potluck luncheon, an apron sale and distribution of gifts to all. Following the luncheon a program of beautiful Christmas music was presented by the Palm Springs High School mixed chorus of 45 under the able direction of Alex Hammond with piano accompaniment by Mrs. Lois Lux. The musical program opened with traditional Christmas songs, "Joy to the World," "Away in the Manger," "Silent Night," (descant by Marilyn Isbell, soprano), and "The First Noel." Then followed the perpetually popular "I'm Dreaming of a White Christmas" sung by Marilyn Mills. "Hark Bethlehem," a Polish Christmas carol with the boys singing the lyrics and the girls the descant. "The Birthday of a King," a baritone solo by Donovan Brown. "On a Winter's Night," a solo by Valerie Hubbs, and four carols sung by the entire chorus. The program was climaxed by a Christmas Cantata based on Latin-American carols. "In David's Town" with the following cast of characters: Joseph, Donovan Brown; Mary, Valerie Hubbs; an Inn Keeper, Leo Rojo Jr.; the Angel, Marilyn Isbell; Women Servants, Sherry Campbell and Helen Field; the Shepherds, Marilyn Mills and Ann Ellis. The lovely and quite authentic costumes were furnished by the Mecca Pageant Organization.

Community Church

Sunday was beautifully decorated with a profusion of poinsettias and other Christmas flowers donated by the Wilbur Larsons and Harvey Petersons. In the sunroom of the church was a lovely figurine of the Madonna backed by silver magnolia leaves and gift of Mrs. Edna Hileman. Mrs. Alvin Lake's 5th and 6th grades had decorated the Christmas tree with trimmings made by the Girl Scouts.

Candlelight Vespers were held Sunday afternoon with singing by the junior choir of twelve voices and the double quartet under the direction of Harry Tomlinson. Jack Hillery rendered a solo and Eugene Thompson a violin selection. Debra Ann Estel, infant daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Harry Estel, was baptized.

Musical Service at Cathedral City

Christmas week was ushered in at Cathedral City Community church Sunday night with a candlelight musical service.

Christmas songs by the congregation were interspersed with special music by an octette from Palm Springs Civic chorus, directed by Harry Tomlinson and a violin solo by Gene Thompson.

Next Sunday's services will be conducted by Dr. Graham Hunter, pastor, at 11 a. m. with Bible school at 9:40 a. m.

Christmas Eve, young people of the church sang carols throughout the town and later were entertained at the Winter home.

ing an "at home" at the Manse from four to seven p. m. next Sunday at which all friends of the church are invited.

Another Teacher

With an all-time high enrollment of 186, the trustees of the Palm Springs Unified School district have allotted another teacher to the Cathedral City school.

Mrs. Dorothy Sproule will take up her duties here January 5, teaching the third grade. Mrs. Helen Emery, principal, states that now it is possible to assign one teacher to each grade with no interim except in the first and second grade rooms.

Here and There

Adelaide and Nelson Daumann, residents of Cathedral City for the past two years, have opened the date and fruit stand at the corner of Avenue 38 and Highway 111.

The Leslie Kellevs' Christmas dinner guests included Mrs. Helen Fagan Philadelphia; Mrs. Agnes Wilbur, Cathedral City; John Basnik, New Jersey, and Russell Hewitson, of Cathedral City.

Mr. and Mrs. L. C. Lewis are spending Christmas with Bob and Lucia Jakobsen, son and daughter-in-law, and granddaughter Shelley at Manhattan Beach.

Claude and Edna Cobb spent Christmas Eve with Mr. Cobb's brother and family in Los Angeles.

Richard Krings is home on Christmas leave from the Navy visiting his parents, the Viron Krings. Richard is head of his class at Damage Control School in San Francisco which training he will complete in January and then go on regular assignment.

Mr. and Mrs. Morris Ellinger are spending the holidays in St. Louis. Mrs. Ellinger's former home.

Riverside High Defeats Indians in Close Game

Palm Springs Varsity eagles played their best game of the season Monday afternoon, although they dropped a 37 to 24 decision to Riverside Poly High Junior Varsity.

The Indians trailed all the way, with the Riverside team taking its widest margin in the third quarter. First quarter score was 10 to 6, halftime 16 to 12, and after three periods of action 28 to 19.

Ken Price, Indian guard, took scoring honors for the game with 12 points. Chuck Smith topped the Riverside scorers with 10 points.

Next action for Coach Clare Ballagh's team will be Friday afternoon, December 26, at Beaumont. Beaumont will play here in a pre-season game on January 6.

Top Pictures for Holidays

The personnel of the Earle C. Strebe Theaters have gone all out to present a top motion picture program to Villagers over the holidays.

Four major studio previews will be presented, each one different, on the nights of December 29, 30 and 31 at the Plaza theater, and on December 31 at the Village theater. The program starts at 1:45 p. m. on New Year's Day.

Joe Garcia's Band Heard at Chaffey

Joe Garcia, son of Mr. and Mrs. Rudy F. Salazar, 3732 Sunny Dunes, Chaffey College sophomore, was featured with his musical group, The Down-Beats, in a special holiday program over the Ontario radio station on December 17 at 3:30 p. m.

Garcia and his musicians have been giving entertainment to the bed-ridden patients at the Norco Naval hospital regularly this year besides appearing at local dances and special entertainment at the recent football banquet.

Village Cartoonist on Chaffey Paper

Mike Van Dame, son of Mr. and Mrs. Morris Van Dame, South Palm Canyon drive, is one of three student cartoonists who contributed to the Chaffey College, Ontario, fun magazine, Kampus Kwips, which was published this week. Proceeds from the sale of the magazine are contributed to the fund raised annually by the college chapter of the State Scholarship society, Alpha Gamma Sigma.

HEADING FOR KOREA—Edward Weiss, pictured above with his father, Marvin Weiss, owner of Park Lane Hotel, will leave Friday for Camp Stoneman enroute to the Far East and Korea after spending a 14-day furlough in the Village. The 21-year-old youth, a star athlete at Palm Springs high school and at the University of California before being injured last year, has just completed 16 weeks of basic training at Camp San Luis Obispo.

70 ENTRIES RECEIVED IN JUNIOR NET TOURNNEY

More than 70 entries have been received in the fifth annual Christmas Junior Tennis Tournament at the Tennis Club, with play starting at 10 a. m. Friday, and continuing through Sunday. Club Professional Ed Meyerson reported.

Entries include many of the top ranking tennis amateurs in California and throughout the nation. This is the first time the tourney is sanctioned by the United States Lawn Tennis association.

Eyel Painting Given Museum

Mrs. Robert Haynes of Norco, California, who formerly resided in Palm Springs, recently brought in to the Museum a beautiful painting by the late Carl Eytel, desert artist. The painting had been given to the late Nellie N. Coffman of the Desert Inn by the artist; later Mrs. Coffman gave it to Mrs. Haynes. The Museum is very glad to receive this fine addition to its Eytel collection, recently donated by Mrs. Alexander Marouse, and would like at this time to publicly express appreciation to Mrs. Haynes, said

Lloyd Mason Smith, Museum director.

Santa Anita Park Expects Record Crowd on Friday

Santa Anita Park expects to attract its largest opening attendance Friday since the beautiful Arcadia track was opened in 1934 to revive racing in southern California after a lapse of 25 years. The Las Flores Handicap for fillies and mares going six furlongs has the added money increased to $20,000 and is assured to bring out a top field. The Amarillo Ranch overnight will be the supporting feature.

Two stakes in the $25,000 California Breeders' Champion for two-year-olds foaled in the State and the $20,000 Palos Verdes Handicap for three-year-olds and up will be the outstanding attractions for Saturday.

The Santa Anita racing program on Tuesday after no racing on Monday with the running of the Monrovia Cup and the Aptos S & S Ranch feature. For the balance of next week there will be an augmented program of a stake-a-day. Wednesday sees the renewal of the Santa Ynez Stakes.

New Year's Day has always been a gala occasion at Santa Anita and this year on Thursday the $25,000 San Pasqual Handicap for the big-name horses coming up to the Santa Anita Handicap will go to the post.

On Friday the $15,000 San Vicente Stakes is carded with the $25,000 Malibu Sequet Stakes for four-year-olds and the Cal-Poly College overnight feature to follow on Saturday.

Santa Anita has its richest and most pretentious program for the coming season with 29 outstanding stakes for $915,000 added and 71 overnight features on the schedule.

City Basketball Loop Takes Rest

City Basketball League action will take a holiday until Thursday, January 8, when Village Market is scheduled to meet Mhoon and Mhoon.

The holiday is due to the regular holiday season, and also because the high school gymnasium floor is being refinished at the present time.

Two games postponed which will have to be rescheduled are Cravy's vs. Mhoon and Mhoon, and Village Market vs. Royal Aces.

Awards Presented School Safety Patrol Captains

Arlene Taylor, captain of Cahuilla School safety patrol, and Cynthia Rojo, captain of the Katherine Finchy School safety patrol, were presented with safety awards by Dr. Arthur Hoff, at a party held at Cahuilla School Monday.

Two trophies donated by the Sampson-Curtis Insurance company were also presented to the patrol captains. Lions and Rotary Club presented gifts and special awards to all outstanding safety patrols for their service to the community and to their fellow students.

Present for the ceremony were George L. Bond, who is in charge of the program; Mrs. Myrtle McCoy who has charge of the ground patrol at Katherine Finchy School; Mrs. Ruby Loughran, in charge of bus patrol at Katherine Finchy School; and Mrs. Jean Benedict, in charge of bus patrol at Cahuilla School.

Refreshments were served at the party by Carl Klein and W. O. Jellison, assisted by Custodian Clyde Childress.

Glass Door Key Distinction of El Mirador Hotel

One of the key distinctions of the newly designed El Mirador hotel is the extensive use of sliding glass doors, a feature of many prize-winning structures throughout the country.

Nearly 60 doors were installed to give the effect of movable glass walls in the hotel and guest houses that are a part of the re-designed hostelry.

One of the unusual ideas executed in the hotel is the long bar that extends from the South Pacific room through the adjoining patio. A giant-sized Arcadia sliding door actually "cuts through the bar" in order that the patio may be shut off from the South Pacific room. The movable wall of glass planned for this novel installation gives guests in the South Pacific Room an indoor-outdoor atmosphere along with a flexible partition between the patio and indoor areas.

Members of Owen B. Coffman post, American Legion, returning from the twenty-first district meeting held Sunday at Santa Ana, said that mail is admissible to the prison where William Oates is held in Czechoslovakia.

Warren Linville, commander, urged local citizens to join in a nation-wide campaign to deluge the prison with Christmas and New Year cards, as an evidence to the Iron Curtain country of American interest.

The mail should be addressed to William Oates, American, Pakhrac prison, Prague, Czechoslovakia.

Ramon Trailer Park Plans Big Christmas Party

There are 155 trailers, from all over the country, parked at Ramon Trailer Park for Christmas, and the trailer people are all getting together in the recreation hall today for a community dinner. The dinner, which is a planned one with buying and cooking duties shared, was arranged by Mrs. Helen Olson and Col. Dale Griswold.

A tall evergreen tree stands in the recreation hall for the holidays, and there will be a Christmas party, with music and games, after the dinner.

Santa Claus, with a gift pack, attended the Christmas party for the children in the Trailer Park last Friday night. An informal concert, with the children participating, was part of the evening's festivities.

Hal Barnett is manager of the Ramon Trailer Park.
